MMHA CONSENT FORM 2020
FOR USING PLAYER'S PERSONAL INFORMATION

PLAYER'S NAME: _____

ASSOCIATION NAME: _____

Our players' safety and well-being is a key priority for us and we all have a role to play to safeguard children's privacy and identity. By working together, we can create awareness and use digital technologies wisely and safely. That is why we have created this consent form for parents and players.

By signing this document, I/we consent to the disclosure of personal information about the above mentioned player by publishing and/or displaying your son/daughter's name and photograph in media and/or league publications (i.e. newspaper articles, website, yearbook, tournament programs) for the purpose of promoting the sport of hockey, the teams, the Midland Minor Hockey Association and our community.

I/we are aware that by giving consent, I/we are permitting personal information/ identity about the above mentioned player to be published in hockey publications or posted to the team/association website, which can be viewed by anyone who accesses the team/association website, and that if consent were withheld, this publication/posting would not occur.

I/we are also aware that by giving consent for media events or filming that I/we are permitting personal information/identity of the player to be published in the media or in promotional materials.

I/we understand that MMHA will not pass our any private information such as phone numbers, addresses or email addresses to any newspaper, internet site, and radio or television station without my expressed written consent.

I/we have given this consent voluntarily.
